

SAEINDIA an affiliate to SAE International is a non-profit engineering and scientific organization dedicated to the advancement of mobility technology to better serve humanity.

We a 14,500 member strong group from SAEINDIA have come out with our new look and more functional website to meet the growing demands of our ever growing global community. We would like to integrate all brethren of automotive industry for better resource sharing and improved networking.

We extend these following business promotional services through our website and invite you to promote your brand/product/services to gain full advantage of your promotional campaign, and also establish useful contacts through us with the only global professional society exclusive to automotive industry.

We solicit your support and continued association to jointly improve our meaningful service to the society at large and SAEINDIA members in particular.

Thank You

Regards

Dr. K.C.Vora
